DISPENSARY FACTS.

Some Points on The System as Operated in South Carolina.

Editor Telegram—I would like to call the attention of our people to the South Caroli dispensary, which has been in operation in that state for several years. I would like for some anti to get the report of the state board of control, which report was made to the legislature now in session in that state. It will be remembered that the South Carolina dispensary went in under the most unfavorable conditions. The towns, almost to a man were violently opposed to it, because it was a Tillman measure and in those days, nothing good could come out of Tillmanism. But today, the people are pulling in line and the great majority of business men I come in contact with, are getting more and more favorable to it. There are many good people who will never become reconciled, but their prejudice is against the—ism more than the dispensary. From a moral standpoint, all confess that the effects are simply wonderful. From a financial view, it is a great success.

By reference to said report of the board of control, you will note that the past thirty-one months, the net profits to the state was eight hundred and seventy-nine thousand dollars ($879,000.00.) During the greater portion of this time, the original package system was in full blast in the state, and naturally the people flocked to the "original package store" for their whiskey. But now the original package is done away with. So just watch South Carolina for the next 12 months and see if the net profits do not run over one million dollars in 1899. Do you think I am overdriving the picture? Write to some prominent banker or merchant in Columbia, S. C. You can get the names of such parties by calling on the Telegram, as I will furnish them and would be glad for you to write them.

The people of Greensboro have no idea of the magnitude of the liquor traffic in this city. It may stagger you to think of eighty to one hundred thousand dollars worth of liquor sold in this town every twelve months. These figures seem high, but let the anti's show up, and if I am too high the figures will still astonish you. The people are tired of paying taxes to keep up the jails and criminal courts, when the man behind the bar gets all the profits. Ninety per cent of all crimes have their origin in whiskey. Now if whiskey must commit the crimes, let the profits pay court cost and jail fees and not the merchants, business men and farmers of our county. Ask our tax-ridden and hard worked farmers of Guilford county, where their taxes go and they will tell you how many thousands of dollars have the hard working people of Guilford paid out of their pockets to prosecute criminals for murder, within the last few years. Were these murders committed by sober men? No, but by men debauched by liquor sold from the barrooms in Greensboro.

The anti's cry: "Taking our liberties from us, &c." Has it ever occurred to you, my friend, that you have been taking the priceless liberties from the Christian mothers and fathers of our city and county for all these years? Have you not stood by and seen the youth and manhood of our land dragged from the hearts of loving parents and reduced to the gutters and in many cases locked behind prison bars? Stop anti and think for one moment of the evil done in our very homes by the barrooms of Greensboro. God knows I pity the man who sells liquor. I have not one word of unkindness for him, I know them all personally and have the kindest feelings for them; but I am opposed to the bar-room system and believe the dispensary the nearest approach to a solution of the question. At any rate, let us try it, you have had your way all these years undisturbed. The law has protected you in your business of reducing the manhood of our land to poverty, disgrace and crime. You have caused thousands and countless thousands to mourn. You have reduced mothers and little ones to want and distress. Now, in the name of humanity, let us try some other plan. It may save some of our boys. It may ease some aching heart. Who can tell? Yours for the "Dispensary."

Company E Coming Home.

A private letter from Captain Dave Gilmer, of Company E, Third regiment, received today, says his company will arrive here next Sunday at noon, and march to the courthouse and disband. He says every effort has been made by Macon people to induce the troops to spend their money there and that the chamber of commerce even tried to prevent the railroad people from sending cars out to the camp in order to get the men in town before starting away, but without success.

NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

In Washington Holds an Interesting Meeting.

COMING ANNUAL RECEPTION.

Secretary Wilson to Visit North Carolina—Adverse Report on Ewart's Case is Not a Surprise.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Monday night the members of the North Carolina society in Washington held an interesting meeting. The organization is in a flourishing condition, and among its membership are several of the North Carolina delegation in Washington, besides several of the North Carolina officials residing temporarily in Washington. In addition the organization has among its members several people from the Old North State who are in professional and business circles of the national capital.

Preliminary to the social meeting of the society, a short business session was held, and officers for the ensuing term were elected. During the coming year of the organization, its officers will be as follows: President, Dr. W. C. Murphy, who is one of the best known North Carolina residents in Washington; Vice-President, J. B. Lloyd, Secretary, F. M. Little, and Treasurer, David Anderson.

After the business meeting of the organization was concluded short and interesting addresses were delivered by Dr. Murphy, the new president, and by Representatives Skinner, Linney and Fowler.

During the present month, it is the intention of the North Carolina society to hold its annual reception, which will be attended by several of the North Carolina delegation in congress and by other prominent North Carolina people at the national capital. The reception of the organization are always full of interest and enjoyment, and are looked forward to by the members with anticipation. A large number of invitations will be issued this year, and nearly all of the North Carolina contingent in Washington are expected to be present. The arrangements for the reception are in the hands of a special committee appointed for the purpose.

Secretary Wilson, of the department of agriculture, during the coming spring will make an extensive tour of the southern states. He will go direct to Florida, and from that state will make a study of each of the southern states, including North and South Carolina on his return trip.

The secretary recently made a trip through the south, but his time was so limited that he was unable to make the study which he desired. His trip during the spring will be taken more leisurely, and will afford him better opportunities for the examinations he desires to make. The trip will be of a semi-official nature, and it is expected that the secretary will be cordially greeted by the people of the different sections he will visit.

General Wheeler, of Alabama, was at the white house yesterday for the purpose of urging the appointment of Captain Shelby to the judgeship of the new circuit. The general was accorded an audience with the president, and presented the claims of his candidate.

The adverse report of the committee on judiciary in the case of Judge Ewart is not a surprise to those who have watched the case. Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee, is opposed to Ewart's confirmation, and his influence carried great weight. Senator Butler is naturally pleased with the result of his opposition, so far as the report of the committee is concerned. Senator Pritchard, on the other hand, is not in the least dismayed, and he says that if a vote is taken in the senate the report of the committee will be rejected, and Ewart will be confirmed.

Sensor Pritchard has presented to the senate a petition from numerous citizens of Elizabeth City, including the Business Men's Club, and of citizens of Manteo, Creswell, Hertford, Edenton, Plymouth and Newbern, asking that an appropriation be made by congress for the purpose of deepening the upper Pasquotank river at the point where the Dismal Swamp canal enters that river.

Representative White has also presented several petitions, as follows: Petition of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Goldsboro, N. C., to prohibit the sale of liquor in government buildings, etc.

Petition of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Goldsboro, to forbid the transmission of lottery messages and other gambling matter by telegraph.

A resolution of the Tarboro board of trade, of Tarboro, urging measures to promote the ocean carrying trade in vessels under the American flag.

The comptroller of the currency has announced his approval officially of the National City Bank of New York city, and of the National Bank of Baltimore, Baltimore, Md., as reserve agents for the City National Bank, of Greensboro, N. C. Star service charge has been ordered in North Carolina. Salisbury to Salisbury, so as to permit postmaster at Pool to dispatch mail one hour of schedule time, provided no connections are broken and no complaint made.

PENALTY TOO SEVERE?

Criticism of Section Seven of The Dispensary Bill.

Editor Telegram: Dear Sir—Through the columns of your paper I desire to make a suggestion concerning a certain provision in the bill which it is proposed to establish a dispensary for Guilford county. Referring to "unbroken packages or bottles." Sec. 7, of the bill contains the following: "It shall be unlawful for said manager, or any other person on the premises, and the said manager shall not allow loading or lashing or drinking on the premises, and any person drinking liquor on said premises and any person refusing or failing to leave said premises after being ordered to do so, by the said manager, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." No punishment is specified in this section.

If the dispensary is to be established no sane man questions the wisdom of prohibiting these things. But Section 11, contains the following, which as applied to the foregoing is open to serious objection: "Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars and imprisoned not less than three months, or both, except where the penalty is otherwise provided."

To the intelligent mind two things are at once obvious; first, that the severity of the punishment prescribed is out of all proportion to the gravity of the offenses named; and second, that over none of them, owing to this rigorous punishment, does a justice of the peace or mayor's court have final jurisdiction. The first, especially when we remember that the offenses are more likely to transgress through inadvertency than any wrong intention, is cruel, barbarous and inhuman. The second is inconsistent with every principle of economy, retards the administration of justice and increases the now almost insuperable barrier to the trial of causes in the superior court.

In every enlightened system of jurisprudence punishment is administered to prevent infractions of the law and not for the purpose of torturing the violator. However good and just a law may be, nothing will more surely bring it into the contempt of mankind and make it an absolute nullity than needless and excessive punishment for its violation. Conscience rebels against it; juries will not convict; courts will not enforce. Would it not be far more consonant with reason, justice and economy to reduce punishment in the cases referred to and give justices of the peace and the mayor final jurisdiction over the petty offenses? All friends of the dispensary movement should see that it is freed from such obnoxious features.

Feb. 1, 1899. O. S. Newlin.

Questions For Mr. Moses Cone.

As Mr. Cone seems to believe that the establishment of the dispensary system in Greensboro will retard the business prosperity of the town, we would like to ask him if in his opinion the kind of business men who would not come to Greensboro because there were no saloons it would be more valuable citizens than those who would be introduced to them for that reason? Again is it not a fact that those business men of Greensboro who have made the greatest success in life, have not been frequenters of saloons? Of two applicants for an important business connection with Mr. Cone, the one a moderate drinker, the other an abstainer, which would he take, supposing they were equal in other respects?

W. R. L.

Knows His Business.

A rounder for the Telegram, dropped into the commission house of C. W. Jennings, on Fayetteville street this morning and was shown through the sales room, receiving, and ripening rooms. They are certainly prepared to handle fruit. Mr. Jennings having been in the business for 18 years, knows what to handle and how to handle it, consequently he has a car of bananas from Jamaica, buys his apples direct from the packer, oranges and lemons are bought by a broker, at auction. Keep your eye on their space in the Telegram for fresh shipments.

Street Cars for Cairo.

Pittsburg, Feb. 1.—Negotiations have been closed with the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Company for the equipment of fourteen cars of the ordinary trolley type to be used in the city of Cairo. It is proposed to build another line as soon as the natives are accustomed to the operation of the cars and later to connect with Alexandria.

CITY OF GREENSBORO ALONE

The Decision To Change The Dispensary Bill.

NO CHANGE IN REVENUE DIVISION

Opportunity to Give High Point Citizens Who Desire to do so to Take Their Names From Petition.

To the Citizens of Guilford County: In view of the development of some dissatisfaction in the western part of the county, to the dispensary, it has been thought best by the executive committee to amend the bill by making it apply to the city of Greensboro alone, and thus avoid complications at the outset. If the dispensary proves a success, as we are sure it will, such an amendment can be made later on as will take in such other parts of the county as may desire to come within the benefits of the bill. No change will be made in the division of the revenue. Twenty per cent will still go to the county.

The statement has been made in the public prints that some of our High Point friends desire to take their names from the petitions. We do not know how this is, but to give all such an opportunity, we will today send the High Point petitions to Mr. E. M. Armfield, cashier, and all wishing to remove their names may do so.

THE BACHELOR GIRLS.

Entertained Last Evening by Miss Susie Reese.

Miss Susie Reese entertained the "Bachelor Girls" and a number of friends at dinner yesterday evening at her home on Green street. Miss Reese was daintily gowned in white and was a lovely and charming hostess.

The dining room and parlors were tastefully decorated in trailing green, and the dinner was one of the most tempting and delicious the "Bachelor Girls" have ever enjoyed.

The following attended: Misses Lillian Staples, Lizzie Balseley, Mabel Kane, Lizzie Leigh Dick, Byers, of Virginia; Frances O'Brien, Ruth Porter, Alice Small and Pearl Balseley.

Housewives' Warning.

There is a woman in Greensboro peddling a "fine" quality of lace, claimed to be hand-made. She is being stamped as a fraud by several ladies whom she has charged fabulous prices for the fabric. Yesterday she sold several yards, to a lady in West Greensboro, at $1.25 per yard and a short while later sold a neighborly several yards for less than half that price. This is the peddler's own business but she has neither secured nor made application for license to sell anything in the city. She will be investigated.

The men all say they are glad of an opportunity to go to the Philippines and are ready to fight if necessary.

Foster Nominated.

Olympia, Washington, Feb. 1.—A. G. Foster, of Tacoma, was nominated for senator by the republican caucus last night. King county and a part of the opposing forces outside that county withdrew, but 68 remained and made the nomination. Only 57 votes are required to elect.

A Steamer Ashore.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—The steamer reported ashore last night near Fenwick's Island is the Rhyndland, from Liverpool. She lies easy. The steamer struck the beach during the heavy snow storm and has forty-two passengers and a crew of seventy-nine. The tug North America is expected to pull her off.

Senatorial Vote Today.

Harrisburg, Feb. 1.—The vote today stood: Quay 108, Jenks 82, Dalzell 16, Stewart 7, Stone 6, Huff 8, Widener 2, Rite 2, Tabbs 2, Smith 1, Crow 1, Irvin 5, Mackie 2; necessary to elect 121.

IN CONGRESS TODAY.

The Peace Treaty Resolutions—River and Harbor Bill.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 1.—A test vote on the treaty may possibly be taken in the senate today. This will come if the program of many individual senators is carried out, but the leaders may decide to keep the lines intact until Monday, when a vote will be had by unanimous agreement.

The house took up the river and harbor bill and the general debate is limited to an hour and a half. Very few outside of the committee amendments will be offered. Many southern representatives wish additional appropriations, but rely on the senate to perfect the bill.

The senate committee on foreign relations has decided to vote on the peace treaty resolutions. They count upon their being voted down.

The first vote will be on a motion to refer the Bacon resolution to the committee. It is thought all resolutions will be voted down except Sullivan's, which, as it now looks, will be adopted. Lindsey offered a resolution that the acquisition of the territory carries no obligation to admit it into the union of states and that the Philippine cession be accepted to help the inhabitants when they may demonstrate ability to form a government.

The army reorganization bill has been reported to the senate and referred to the committee on military affairs.

There were several large slides yesterday which greatly damaged the sheds.

What do you think of the medium-sized store room suggestion?

Who in Greensboro is sitting down waiting for something to turn up?

If there is a policeman on the force who can be spared from his other duties long enough to watch the sidewalk where the street carriages back up at the depot, it will not take him long to detect a number of violations of the old ordinance specially designed to prohibit blocking that place.

As we suggested yesterday, let the next session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly be invited to Greensboro. There is no place with superior hotel facilities. There is no place with equal geographical and railroad advantages. Let the invitation be extended by the proper persons.

The Charlotte News says that "Greensboro has adopted a regular curfew ordinance." Hadn't heard of its adoption. At the last regular meeting of the board of aldermen such an ordinance was introduced and referred to the police committee. It was printed in the paper the next day but is not yet enacted into law.

Our Scotch friends down in the lower part of Richmond county and upper part of Robeson are again before the legislature clamoring for a new county to be called Scotland. This move has been agitated at intervals since 1851. It has been turned down many times. It is said that a large majority of people in the territory that will be embraced by the new county are in favor of it. That, it would seem, should settle it.

We would commend to the High Point Citizen a careful reading of the dispensary bill prepared for this city; also a study of the system as in use in other places. It will do away entirely with much of that paper's theorizing as to the workings of the system. And as to the "well-nigh successful effort made by sundry citizens of Fayetteville to get the legislature to dispense with the dispensary" we will state that the bill for repeal was unfavorably reported by the committee on propositions and grievances by a vote of seven to three, and defeated unanimously before the house!

How many blacksmith shops, coach-makers, wheelwrights, tinners, painters, plasterers, etc., are there in Greensboro, and who are they? The newspaper columns are watched for their ads and they are not found. The editor is asked, often, about these departments and is at a loss to give information. And where are the upholsterers, mattress makers, etc? They are frequently asked about. Where are the brokers and real estate agents? They advertise very little. All of these have an important part to perform in building the city, and their advertisements in the local papers go far towards showing to the world that the town is on the move. Let every man get a shoulder to the wheel. Too many people refuse to say a word unless they see that word is going to bring them, individually and immediately, large returns. It is the constant drop that wears the rock, and bread cast upon the waters will return after many days. That is, it may return immediately; but it will return if it takes many days to do it.

How to Look Good.
Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alternative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

The Ravages of Grip.
That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough, heal the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50c and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drugstore.

A Fine Musical Treat.

Have our readers ever stopped to note what a rare thing it is to find a singer who has the ability to render a ballad successfully, we mean one who can render every note so it is understood, and has the magnetism, archness, or pathos to interpret and convey the writer's idea and desire. Not one singer in a thousand can do this. Not many years ago there appeared at a concert in Chicago a young woman who sang a simple ballad in such a manner as to awaken unbounded enthusiasm on the part of the great audience, and to receive the most laudatory notices of the papers. She was soon in demand and has become famous throughout the whole country as a ballad singer.

We refer to Louise M. Brehany, the prima donna of the Louise Brehany Ballad and Opera Concerts, soon to visit us. She has been a member of the following notable organizations, Sousa's Band, The Chicago Marine Band, Edouard Remenyi Concerts, Brenard Listemann Quartette, and is the best ballad singer America has produced in a long while. One of the most attractive portions of the program given by her and the celebrated artists assisting her, will be an act of the grand opera Martha in costume, with all scenery and paraphernalia. The famous pianist and conductor, W. Guillaume Saviet is also a member of the concert, and Agnes Pringle, the young violinist, who has attracted so much attention in the past recently. This will be a fine musical treat for our city, and we hope our citizens will turn out to greet this splendid organization.

Tenn.
My introduction to this prince of the Pacific was on this wise: My brother and I were trailing for yellowtail off the island of Santa Catalina. Suddenly out of the summer sea a flying fish—the humming bird of the ocean—flashed athwart our bows and then, not a dozen yards distant, the waters parted and a huge tuna, in its resplendent livery of blue and silver, swooped with indescribable strength and rapidity upon its quarry, catching it, mirabile dictu, in midair. In a fraction of a second the deed was done. The ocean, recording the splash of the leviathan, rippled around us, and our questions patterned like hail upon the somewhat hard understanding of our boatman, a son of Al-sace.

"Yes," he said, his white teeth in curious contrast to a lean, bronzed face—"yes, messieurs, that is a tuna, a 200 pounder, at least!"—Pall Mall Gazette.

Smoke One With Me.
"Do you smoke?" asked the middle aged man. "You didn't two months ago. You oughtn't to smoke, my boy; you're too young, and not strong looking." Then the elderly adviser started to light a cigar. "Have a cigar?" he said absently, as he scratched a match. The young man took the cigar and lit off the end.

"These are very mild," ended the speaker, presumably for the benefit of his conscience—"very mild, and won't hurt you any."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Capacity of St. Paul's.
As many as 36,000 people have been accommodated in St. Paul's cathedral, but that has been with temporary galleries, etc., erected. On festivals only between 6,000 and 7,000 people find place at an ordinary service about 4,000 people will make the cathedral look quite full.

Two Points of View.
"My children," said the poor man sadly, "are crying for bread."
"Which shows," replied the rich man coldly, "how much you have to be thankful for. Now, mine are crying for bonbons."—Brooklyn Life.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for La Grippe we have yet to lead of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure La Grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The gunboats Annapolis and Vicksburg arrived at St. Thomas, D. W. I., on Saturday. They will sail for Puerto Rico this week.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Micanopy (Fla.) Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe and its exhausting after-effects. Never fails. Howard Gardner.

Starting in a clinker boat from a Lake Erie island for Canada with a child's body to bury, John Robson's family of four perished.

As executrix of her husband's estate Mrs. Leland Stanford, of San Francisco, Cal., handled $24,869,245, and paid her lawyers $60,000.

The Ravages of Grip.
That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough, heal the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50c and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drugstore.

CAMELS HARBOR HATRED.

Will Wait Until an Opportunity Arises For Revenge.

The Arab who has angered a camel will throw his clothes upon the ground, and the infuriated beast, after stamping on them and tearing them asunder with his teeth, goes on his way, and the driver is thereafter quite safe, as it seems to be an axiom with the camel that no man shall be put in peril of life twice for one offense.

The camel is stupid, save when angry, and then seems to become almost preternatural in carrying out its vengeful designs. Palgrave relates the following story of a camel's revenge, which serves to illustrate this point: "A lad of 14 had conducted a large camel laden with wood from one village to another at a half hour's distance. As the animal loitered or turned out of the way its conductor struck it repeatedly, and harder than it seemed to have thought he had a right to do. But not finding the occasion favorable for taking immediate quits it 'bode its time.' That time was not long in coming.

"A few days later the same lad had to reconduct the beast, but on men, to his own village. When they were about half way on the road and at some distance from any habitation, the camel suddenly stopped, looked deliberately round in every direction to assure itself that no one was in sight and, finding the road clear of passers, made a step forward, seized the unlucky boy's head in its monstrous mouth, and, lifting him up in the air, flung him down again on the earth with the upper part of his skull completely torn off.

"Having thus satisfied its revenge, the brute quickly resumed its pace toward the village, as though nothing were the matter, till some men, who had observed the whole, though unfortunately at too great a distance to be able to afford timely help, came up and killed it."—London Telegraph.

NOT THE ONLY ONE.

Speakers in That Locality Were as Thick as Blackberries.

A half yearly meeting of the directors who manage the Northampton private asylum had just broken up, and Lord Spencer, a member of that body, desiring to reach Althorp Park somewhat more quickly than customarily, determined to return home by a route which intersects the grounds of the asylum and which is rarely used save as a summer parade for the unfortunate lunatics. Arrived at the gate which separates the asylum from the outer world, Lord Spencer, much to his annoyance and disgust, found it securely locked. A keeper, however, happening to come in sight just at that moment Lord Spencer lost no time in explaining to him the nature of his wishes.

The man surlily replied that his orders were to the effect that no one should pass through that gate except due notice was given to him to the contrary by the authorities, and that, being a married man with a wife and a large family, he failed to understand what special advantage was to be gained by transgressing the rules and thus placing his situation in jeopardy. Observing that the fellow was growing obdurate, Lord Spencer thought it best to recall the knowledge of the same would recall the man to his senses. Nothing of the sort happened, however.

The child father of the keeper simply relaxed into a broad grin, and as he turned to depart he gently explained that Lord Spencer in that particular locality were as plentiful as blackberries in the autumn time. Explanations and expostulations were useless, the discomfited earl being obliged to growl away he had come.—Wit and Wisdom.

Too Much of It.

A high army officer whose fad was ventilation was one day making an inspection of a factory, peering which was much in need of repair. In some places the roof showed the blue sky overhead and the walls were ornamented with gaps.

The brigadier general was escorted through the building by the colonel in charge, a sergeant going on before, as is the custom, to warn the men to stand at attention in honor of the general. As they proceeded the general asked: "And how is the ventilation, colonel?"

Before the colonel could reply the old sergeant, with a familiarity born of long service, said: "Sure, general, and the ventilation is bad, sort, verra bad, sort. The place is all full of holes, sort."—Detroit Free Press.

Her Opinion.

"Mandy," said Farmer Cortnessel, who had been reading the back pages of a magazine, "a cannon ball got at the rate of 60 miles an hour, and was shot from the back of a train going 60 miles an hour, where would the cannon ball hit?"

"I dunno exactly where 'twould light," she answered, "but I kin prophecy that it 'd do a lot of damage, couldn't hit nowhere without hurting a lot of people that was standin around without anything better to do than speckle-steak on jes' seck deen!"—Washington Star.

Juvenile Diplomacy.

Mother—I gave each of you boys an orange. Charlie, you said you wouldn't eat yours until after dinner. And you, Jack, said the same. Have you deceived me?

Charlie—No, mother; we didn't eat our own oranges. I ate Jack's and he ate mine.—Sydney Town and Country Journal.

Infantile Plants.

Two well known English plants, the thistle and the rape, are so inimical that if a field is infested with thistles, which come up year after year and ruin the crops, all you have to do is to sow it with rape. The thistles will be absolutely annihilated.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service
JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m. via the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2:20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the outside rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jekyll Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

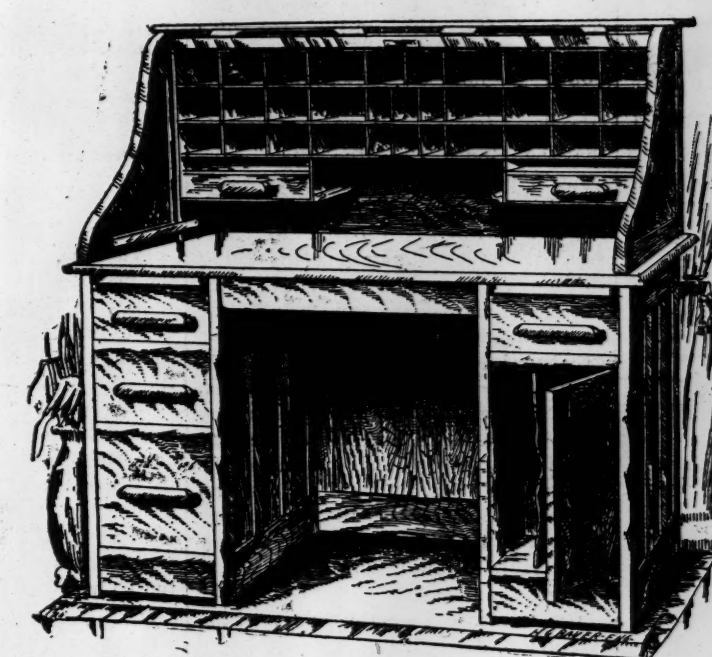

There are two other fine trains between New York and Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyll Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R.

For full information, reservation of seats, apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A. F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thwait, E. P. A., Southern Ry., 271 Broadway, New York.

To Our Friends and Patrons:

In closing our books for the year 1898 we find we have quite a number of small accounts which in themselves are trivial, but we aggregate would make quite a nice sum. While we wish to be obliging and courteous to our customers and try to please all, we must insist upon getting our business upon more of a Cash Basis.

To open so many small accounts involves quite an amount of book keeping and consumes too much valuable time. This can be avoided by paying cash for your bundle when delivered and do away with all possibility of disputed accounts.

Thanking our customers for their patronage in the past, and extending to each and every one the greetings of the season.

Respectfully,

The Steam Laundry,

1. They are of handsome designs.
We "pick out" the best that a number of the best factories in the country can offer. We have a number of new and handsome designs now in stock.
2. They are made of selected woods.
There is a great deal of difference in woods—even in oak woods. Let us show you the difference between a piece of plain, coarse grained oak, and a piece of handsome, quartered oak.
3. The workmanship and finish are faultless. Made and polished like a piano.
4. Grates and tiles to harmonize with the mantels and all to harmonize with the finish of your room.
5. The people buy them. We furnished one customer over seventy mantels, with tiles. This speaks for itself.

Our Large Stock of Shoes.

Once every six months we hold a genuine closing out sale. Our Spring Shoes are now in process of making and before they will arrive we expect to close out the greatest part of our present great shoe stock. Of course we will have to sacrifice profit and even part of the cost of many of our shoes, but we will not summer over any of our winter shoes, no matter how great our loss.

The sales opens Thursday morning, so come early before the sizes are broken up

Of Interest to Parents

The little child of George White came near burning to death Saturday night. She was standing in front of the fire when her cotton dress ignited, and but for the quick heroic action of her mother, would have burned to death.
Mrs. White had her hands severely burned in putting out the clothing of her little one.—Durham Special to Raleigh
